

Advanced Television Production

Apply safety skills in television production field locations, classrooms, and studios. ADTVP1

1 Apply safety skills in television production field locations, classrooms, and studios. ADTVP1

Demonstrate leadership skills as a member of a television production team. ADTVP2

A Examples: organizing content, managing equipment, performing assignment editing ADTVP2A

Utilize public relations skills in special programs and project settings in television production. ADTVP3

A Examples: interpersonal communications, correspondence, community relations ADTVP3A

Apply specialized skills to perform television roles in writing, producing, performing, photographing, editing, and studio operations. ADTVP4

A Examples: anchor, producer, actor, camera operator, editor, director ADTVP4A

Organize subject matter into meaningful, marketable, and expressive video projects. ADTVP5

A Examples: promotional videos, instructional videos, commercials ADTVP5A

Design creative television and film productions, including short films and special presentations. ADTVP6

A Utilizing video skills in a professional setting Examples: internships, freelance video work ADTVP6A

Assemble a portfolio of professional quality video work, including a statement of purpose, for a career in television production. ADTVP7

A Demonstrating advanced skills in one or more career specializations of photography, editing, writing, producing, performance, or studio operations
Examples: short films, special presentations ADTVP7A