I The student explains that patriotism is the love of country, meaning that one holds his or her country up to an objective standard of moral right and wrong, preserving the ways in which the country does good and correcting the ways it sometimes does wrong. C 9-12.U.S.H.7.I

J The student tells the stories and explains the effects of major military events, figures, and common soldiers from the War of Independence. H 9-12.U.S.H.7.J

K The student explains the proper ways to respect the American flag and the reasons for this respect. HC 9-12.U.S.H.7.K

---

L The student tells the story of how the Americans won the War of Independence, including the battles of Trenton, Saratoga, and Yorktown. H 9-12.U.S.H.7.L

The student demonstrates understanding of the Declaration of Independence and the arguments of leading founders. 9-12.U.S.H.8

A The student reads and discusses the meaning of the first, second, and final paragraphs of the Declaration of Independence and selections from the remainder, including the first draft's sections on slavery. HC 9-12.U.S.H.8.A

B The student explains the meaning of “the Laws of Nature and of Nature’s God,” including the founders’ argument that there is a standard of justice in nature that does not change and is true of all peoples in all times, and that an eternal God is responsible for this unchanging truth. C 9-12.U.S.H.8.B

C The student explains the meaning of “created equal,” including the founders’ argument that each person is equally human and as such has the same dignity and natural rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, that each is endowed with these rights by the God that created them, and that the existence of human slavery was understood by most, but not all, of the founders to be a contradiction of the principle of human equality. C 9-12.U.S.H.8.C

D The student explains the meaning of “natural rights” and “unalienable,” including the founders’ argument that fundamental rights arise out of man’s nature as a human person, that these rights do not come from other people or any government, and that these rights cannot be denied or taken away unless the person has used them to violate the rights of another. C 9-12.U.S.H.8.D

---

E The student explains the meaning of “life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness,” in particular the founders’ argument that each human being has the right by nature to their own life, to their liberty and the general freedom of thought and action, and to seek the happiness appropriate to human liberty as long as it does not violate the rights of others. C 9-12.U.S.H.8.E

F The student explains the meaning of “the consent of the governed,” including the founders’ argument that legitimate government derives its just powers from the consent of those that are governed, who in turn have delegated limited powers to government in order to secure their rights. C 9-12.U.S.H.8.F

G The student explains that the purpose of government as outlined in the Declaration of Independence is to “secure these rights,” meaning those fundamental rights derived from “the Laws of Nature and of Nature’s God.” C 9-12.U.S.H.8.G

H The student explains the argument of the Declaration of Independence that when government “becomes destructive” of its purpose of securing rights, a people may change or abolish their government and institute new government to best effect their safety and happiness. C 9-12.U.S.H.8.H

---

I The student explains why the delegates to the Second Continental Congress voted to declare independence from Great Britain, including the list of grievances and other historical events since 1763. C 9-12.U.S.H.8.I

---

J The student explains how America’s founding based on these words of the Declaration of Independence was unprecedented in human history: “We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.—That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.” C 9-12.U.S.H.8.J

---

The student demonstrates understanding of the principles of the United States Constitution. 9-12.U.S.H.9

A The student explains what the Land Ordinance of 1785 and the Northwest Ordinance of 1787 accomplished for public education, private land ownership, and the abolition of slavery. HC 9-12.U.S.H.9.A

B The student explains the crafting of the Articles of Confederation, their weaknesses, their historical effects, and their relationship to the Constitutional Convention. HC 9-12.U.S.H.9.B
